

Bethlehem Central High School

"The more things change, the more they stay the same." Someone told me that once, but I never believed it. Things will be different without the Class of 1987 at BC, and those whose lives the seniors touched will attest to that. The greatest thing that can be said about a group of people is that they made a difference. And we sure did!

These four years have been the best of times, and we'll never forget them. It's sad how the time has just slipped away, but the feeling they've left is one of fulfillment rather than emptiness. Though we'll each go our separate ways and make a new start at life this fall, we'll all take a small part of this school with us.

It wasn't just the fun and the friendships that made things special. It was knowing that we were all part of something bigger than any of us. As much as anyone says they hate everything about school, they'll still feel themselves getting nostalgic about the little things they've always taken for granted.

Sure we're happy to turn the page on this chapter of our lives, but we'll always have the satisfaction of being able to say that we loved the story-good or bad.

We'd like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has pulled the Class of '87 through these four years. You'll always hold a special place in the hearts and minds of these graduates. You've certainly made a difference!

For the sake of brevity, we'd like to conclude this exposition in short order with a special message to all the seniors: GOOD LUCK CLASS OF 87, IT'S BEEN GOOD KNOWING YOU.

Sincerely,

Beth Biggerstaff
