

Men's Soccer

Thanks to strong play from senior co-captains Paul Doyle and Toby Dunmore, the B.C. soccer squad posted an impressive 10-6-1 record in the fall of '86. Dunmore finished with 15 goals on the season, and junior Eric Lee tallied 12 of his own. Doyle and classmate David Cunningham played well as mid-fielders, and also added to B.C.'s 60-goal season. The team record is deceiving, for most of their six loses were in very close games, many in cases where the Eagles outplayed their opponents but simply failed to get the ball in the goal and win the tight games. Bethlehem made the Sectional tournament once again, but drew a powerful Shenendehowa squad and was knocked out in the opening game, 4-1.
