Varsity

The Varsity men's swimming team captured the Section II Class A title for the 17th straight year in 1987. Six swimmers from B.C. also qualified to go to the Intersectional State Meet. B.C. was led by Chris Drew and Justin Baird who qualified for 3 events each. They were joined by John McCarthy and Joe Kowalski in the 400M freestyle relay. Pete Greenwald and Alex Hall each qualified in their respective individual events.

During the regular season B.C. was undefeated, although they survived several close calls. Team captains were Joe Kowalski and Pete Greenwald.
